Who is an Alumni mentor?
An Alumni mentor is a graduate of VIU willing to share professional and personal experience with current students and help them focus on professional development, networking, and job interviews.

Eligibility to be a mentor?
Preferably should be an established professional, understand the needs of current students, should be aware of the professional environments and the challenges to be met in the job market.

How is a mentee delegated to a mentor?
The prospective mentee will be given the list of mentors, who will then correspond with the chosen mentor via the preferred method of contact mentioned in this sign up form.

How will mentoring benefit mentee?
The mentor will help prepare the mentee for the job market through personal and professional guidance. The mentor may organize field visits in the real work atmosphere, but, the mentor is not responsible in any ways to provide job opportunities to the mentee.

Eligibility to be a mentee?
Current student of VIU with promising academic credentials.
