International Tuition applies to all applicants and US visa holders with the exception of H1, H1B, H4, O, A, K, Jay Treaty status holders, political asylees and refugees who are eligible for Domestic Tuition.

All US citizens, permanent residents (green card holders) and holders of certain types of visas such as H1, H1B, H4, O, A, K, Jay Treaty status holders, political asylees and refugees are eligible for Domestic Tuition. Alumni who graduated from a VIU degree or certificate program are eligible for Domestic Tuition. Students who completed ESL, Test Preparation, and Continuing Education programs at VIU are not considered as alumni.

Federal Financial aid is granted from the U.S. Department of Education, which helps eligible students pay for higher education expenses.
