PROOF OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT

A recent bank statement(s) in the name of the sponsor, listed above, must also be provided with this form. The following conditions must be met:

1. The name on the bank statement must match the name (exactly) of the sponsor stated above.
2. The information on the bank statement must be dated within 6 months of the intended date of enrollment.
3. Proof of property ownership and proof of employment are NOT sufficient evidence of fund availability.

Please note: The bank statement will need to show at least the minimum amount required for the program, as shown on Page 2.

If an applicant has more than one sponsor, a bank statement and a Statement of Financial Support Form must be submitted for EACH sponsor.

Application Cancellation Refund Policy:

If the embassy in your home country has declined your visa application for any reason, any money you have deposited with us will be refunded, excluding the application and postage fees. Any and all fees and charges incurred will be paid by the student.

- Tuition deposits are optional. We recommend a minimum deposit of $500. If you choose to make a tuition deposit it must be paid directly to VIU. VIU does not authorize any third parties to collect tuition from students. Before making a tuition deposit, you must contact the accounting department at accounting@viu.edu for more information.

To receive a refund, the applicant must do the following (The $100 application fee is non-refundable.):

Request a refund by email, refund@viu.edu and Fax us an Application Cancellation and Refund Request Form at +1-703-591-7048. VIU will only refund tuition deposits to the person/organization who made the original payment. Please note that the refund process can take up to 45 calendar days.

* There are two mandatory semesters in one academic year – Fall and Spring. These costs are based on a student enrolled in full-time classes for two semesters.

Living Expenses: Each student may choose living accommodations or other expenses, which would cost more than the amounts listed above. This is an estimate of minimal expenses only. It is advised that each student should arrive in the U.S. with at least $2,500 in cash to cover “settling-in” expenses.

Fees:

- Application fee (non-refundable) $100
- Deferral Fee (non-refundable) $50
- Student Service Fee $75 Academic Spring and Fall
(paid with tuition, upon enrollment in courses) $50 Academic Summer I and Summer II
$50 ESL
$30 Online
- English Proficiency Test Fee (if applicable) $30 On-campus Test
$55 Online Test

Tuition and Fees:

- Subject to change without prior notice. Money for personal expenses (books, supplies, etc.) is not included in tuition
- ESL semester tuition is based on 20 hours per week instruction. Full-time ESL students are required to attend 20 hours of classes per week.

Housing:

- The university does not provide housing or dormitories. Students are responsible for their own living accommodations. VIU’s Student Affairs staff helps students locate suitable housing, based on the students’ needs and desires. Contact: studentaffairs@viu.edu
- The average annual living expense (housing and food) in the Washington, DC area is $12,550 per student. These estimated expenses are for a single student, with no dependents (spouse or children).
- Those students bringing dependents must show proof of having an additional $4,000 per year for the first dependent and $2,000 per year for each additional dependent.
